

ProCredit Bank in Germany is characterised by its international outlook, its commitment to sustainability and its clear business model. It is a member of the ProCredit group of banks, which operate as the “Hausbank” for small and medium enterprises and for private clients in many developing countries and emerging economies. In Germany, we serve small and medium-sized companies whose operations are geared towards sustainability, especially those with business relations in South Eastern and Eastern Europe, as well as depositors who are looking for a fair and meaningful investment opportunity.

To support our team in Frankfurt, we are looking for a

Junior Specialist (f/m) Operational Risk & Information Security

In this role, you will be part of the risk controlling team. As a specialist for operational risk and information security, you will analyse risks and collaborate closely with colleagues in the bank, as well as the bank’s IT provider.

Your responsibilities:

- Performing regular and ad-hoc assessments of operational, fraud, and information security risks
- Monitoring and analysing IT security risks
- Making recommendations to the risk committee and preparing reports for management
- Advising on risks in new products
- Collaborating with the anti-money laundering officer on fraud investigations
- Assisting with the continued development of the bank’s information security and operational risk management frameworks
- Managing the bank’s business continuity process

Your profile:

- University degree or equivalent in a relevant field (e.g. computer science, engineering, business / economics)
- Understanding of IT networks and information security tools (e.g. anti-virus, vulnerability scanning, IDS/IPS)
- Some professional experience or interest in banking / finance
- Strong analytical skills
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Good knowledge of MS Office applications, especially Excel
- Excellent written and spoken English; knowledge of German is a plus

You will be part of a dedicated international team with a flat hierarchy. We keep channels of communication short and offer a friendly working environment. We look for the following qualities in all of our employees:

- You identify with the goals and ethical principles of the ProCredit group and are able to communicate them
- You are flexible and open to discussion
- You enjoy working as part of a team and communicate clearly and openly
- You are able to work independently, are target-oriented and confident

We believe that we can offer you an interesting work environment with good opportunities for personal and professional development.
