

The ProCredit Academy is the international management training centre of the development-oriented ProCredit group, which consists of commercial banks for small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) with an operational focus on South-Eastern and Eastern Europe. In addition to this regional focus, the ProCredit Group also operates in South America and Germany. ProCredit sets itself very high standards in staff development. The ProCredit Academy provides a comprehensive and unique training and development program for high potential employees, middle and upper management. It is worth noting that this position would be a step away from academia and is more in the direction of learning and development in the business world. In addition to providing bank-specific knowledge, ProCredit Academy places a great deal of emphasis on knowledge of the social and intellectual developments, which have occurred throughout human history.

Our teaching team at ProCredit Academy is looking to expand with:

Teacher (m/f/d) in Humanities (Medieval History)

Starting date: January 2023

Job Description:

The ProCredit Academy is seeking a qualified and committed teacher (m/f) to join our campus and teach in the humanities branch of our Management development program. Our campus is located in Fürth, in beautiful, tranquil surroundings in the heart of Germany's Odenwald region, and is a one-hour drive from Frankfurt Airport.

The position would entail teaching history of Roman Empire, Dark Ages, Enlightenment period. The language of instruction is English.

Key responsibilities:

- Teach highly engaged and curious adult professionals looking to develop their skills and enhance knowledge
- Design and continuously develop course modules and concepts aligned with the learning objectives of the Academy
- Develop teaching and learning materials
- Cooperate with other teachers
- Lead feedback talks and write assessments
- Define areas of students' development and support them

Required qualifications:

A university degree in history or in a related discipline in the humanities and social sciences

Necessary job skills:

- Relevant and demonstrable experience in teaching/training adults
- Flexibility and ability to engage with and teach various historical periods
- Fluent English
- Ability to introduce and explain complex concepts within the historical context
- Ability to inspire students in historical topics and issues
- Ability to design interactive teaching modules
- Ability to work in a dynamic and international environment
- Willingness to re-locate to the Odenwald region in Hessen, Germany or adjacent areas

Employment conditions:

- Full-Time unlimited contract (ideally), with possibility of offering Part-Time contract
- Company's pension plan
- Working in an international highly committed team of ProCredit Academy
- Attractive salary
- Working-from-home arrangements

Contact Information

Please send your CV and motivation letter (and reference letters if you possess them) to:

ProCredit Academy GmbH

Hammelbacher Straße 2

64658 Fürth-Weschnitz

For: Office Management

or by e-mail to

PCACampus@procredit-group.com

Before applying, please consult our website www.procredit-holding.com for more information about the ProCredit group and the ProCredit Academy.

Deadline for applying:

01.12.2022