

ProCredit. We are an international group of development-oriented commercial banks for small and medium enterprises. We are active in South Eastern and Eastern Europe, South America and Germany. Our overriding goal is to combine high development impact with economic success.

For our team at ProCredit Holding in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, we are seeking a motivated

(Junior) Specialist Green Finance (m/f/d) in Group Credit Risk Management focusing on renewable energy project finance and ESG analysis

What tasks we offer:

- Preparing second opinions on loan applications from our subsidiary banks (renewable energy project finance and SME financing)
- Formulating recommendations on company policy or procedural changes, in compliance with group policies and relevant legal requirements (MaRisk, KWG, etc.)
- Further developing our institutional approach to financing renewable energy projects in developing countries and emerging markets: templates, guidelines, manuals, tools and IT projects
- Shaping the group's approach to integrating environmental and social (E&S) risks into credit and portfolio analysis (e.g. climate and transition risks): standards, policies, reports and analyses
- Supporting the subsidiary banks in the implementation of the above approaches, including by means of training measures and preparing presentations and regular reports

What we expect:

- Strong interest in environmental, financial and development issues
- Willingness and interest in business trips to ProCredit banks, including client visits
- University degree in development economics, economics, business administration, political science, economic geography, or other social or natural sciences with a minor in economic/business administration or comparable qualification
- Professional experience in the consulting, banking and financial services industry is an advantage
- Knowledge of finance and accounting, statistics, economics, industry assessment and financial statement analysis
- Strong analytical and critical thinking skills
- Excellent command of spoken and written English German language skills and/or further language skills from countries of the ProCredit banks are an advantage. The working language in the department and in the ProCredit group is English.
- Confident handling of MS Office products (especially Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint, Teams, etc.)

In addition to these technical requirements, it is very important to us that you identify with the goals and ethical principles of our company and are able to work productively with colleagues from all around the globe.

What you can expect:

- An international environment as well as a pleasant and open working atmosphere
- Flat hierarchies and efficient decision-making processes
- Exciting tasks with responsibility and involving cross-team project work
- "JobTicket" for transportation as well as company pension plan
- Excellent location in Frankfurt-Bockenheim

Have we sparked your interest?

We look forward to receiving your application documents, including salary expectations and desired starting date, by e-mail

jobs-creditriskmanagement@procredit-group.com

To learn more about the ProCredit group, please visit:

www.procredit-holding.com

